SINNOTT-JOHNSON WEDDING

TIMES
Well-Known Young Victoria Lawyer
Is Married

Wesley Methodist Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, when Miss Ruth Evelyn Johnson, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. W. Johnson, of Colville Road, Esquimalt, became the bride of Mr. Patrick John Paterson Sinnott, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Sinnott, of Selkirk Avenue.

The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. J. F. Dimmick, pastor of the church.

A profusion of golden-glow, Shasta daisies and white asters had been artistically arranged for the occasion by intimate friends of the bride and formed a beautiful setting for the wedding ceremony.

The bride who was handsomely gowned in ivory satin and French lace, over which fell her bridal veil of silk net, was a charming picture as she entered the church on the arm of her father. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. L. A. Young, as matron of honor, and Miss Hazel Anderson as bridesmaid. They were beautifully attired in mauve and pink crepe de Chine dresses, with hats en suite, and carried sheaves of mauve and pink sweet peas.

Little Miss Roma Dorman made a winsome flower girl in her frock of pale blue taffeta and a pink tulle veil which fell from a wreath of miniature rose-buds. She carried a dainty blue basket of pink sweet peas.

Mr. Herbert Sinnott supported the groom and Mr. E. R. Young acted as usher.

During the signing of the register "Because" was beautifully rendered by Mr. F. Waddington.

Mr. Oliver Stout, organist of the church, officiated at the organ.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the reception rooms being tastefully decorated in a scheme of mauve and pink. The young couple received the congratulations and good wishes of the guests under a bell of white flowers. Among those who assisted in serving the dainty refreshments were: Mesdames Elliott, Schwabe, Walton, Hammill, Anderson and Rees, and Misses Emily Anderson, Margaret Jones, Kathleen Mulcahy, Grace and Mable Henry, Annie Emery, Gertrude Knappett, Irene Armstrong and Minnie McGinley.

The bride's going away dress was of grey and blue satin crepe, with which she wore a chic hat of blue and rose, and handsome blue Marvella wrap with black fox stole.

The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond and sapphire ring, to the matron of honor and bridesmaid earrings, to the flower girl a necklace of pearls, and to the best man and ushers tie pins.

The bride's gift to the groom was a fitted club bag.

The bride has been on the teaching staff of Lampson Street School and the bridegroom is a well-known and popular member of the legal profession. They received many handsome and useful gifts.

The happy couple left on the afternoon boat for Seattle and other points, and on their return will reside at 609 Moss Street.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Inverarity and Miss Catherine Ross, of Duncan, and Messrs. A. and T. Mackenzie, of Vancouver.

Colorful city lawyer

P.J. Sinnott dies at 88

Patrick John Paterson Sinnott, a Victoria lawyer since 1920, died Thursday at 88.

Born in Inverness, Scotland, Sinnott came to Canada in 1911, and was involved in many of Victoria's most colorful legal cases.

He was still practising law as a senior member of the firm of Sinnott & Gatehouse on the day he died.

He studied law in Scotland, but came to Canada before completing his bar examinations there. He worked in Quebec and Ontario before coming to Victoria as secretary for Mayor Morley, who developed the Sooke Lake water supply system and Victoria's street lighting.

He studied law under Wendell B. Farris, later chief justice of the supreme court, and A.D. Macfarlane, before being called to the bar in 1920.

He was active in politics, serving as an executive member of the Sir Richard McBride Conservative Club, and helped organize the National Councils, an independent group which aimed to eliminate "machine" politics.

He ran as an independent candidate for Victoria in the 1933 provincial election, and was one of the first politicians to make extensive use of radio in a political campaign, but was defeated.

He is survived by his wife, the former Ruth Evelyn Johnson, and by his daughter, Patricia Wilson of Victoria.

The funeral will be held

Monday at 2 p.m., in Christ Church Cathedral. Funeral arrangements are being made through Cunningham's.

Suddenly

Patrick John Sinnott, one of Victoria's most colorful lawyers and dabblers in politics, died Thursday in Victoria General Hospital. He was 88. He had been working at his office at 1012 Douglas up until a day before his sudden death.

Born in Inverness, Scotland, he came to Canada in the early 1900s and eventually to Victoria where he became a colorful and prominent figure in the local courts. At various times he acted as city magistrate and city prosecutor.

He served in a number of positions for the Conservative party but in 1952 announced that he had joined Social Credit because "I've been blackballed by the Liberals and Conservatives for 20 years."

However, he apparently resented as he was elected president of the Victoria Progressive Conservative Association in 1960.

In 1956, he joined the ranks of Canadian novelists with the publication of an historical romance, Simon the Fox. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

He is survived by his wife Ruth Evelyn, 804 Dereen Place; a daughter, Mrs. Patricia R. Wilson of Mississauga, Ont. and three grandchildren, Elizabeth Anne Wilson, University of Guelph; Susan Ruth Wilson and Catriona Wilson, both of Mississauga.

Lace," but was handicapped by an inability to remember his lines. He often had to improvise, to the confusion of his fellow-players.

He writes as a hobby. He has written several historical novels, a play and a number of articles, all of which are currently in an agent's hands going the rounds of publishers. So far, he hasn't sold anything.

IRKED BY PATRONAGE

He took up politics, was vice-president of the Sir Richard McBride Conservative Club for five years, and then grew disgusted by the patronage that infested political parties.

He helped organize the National Councils, an independent group that aimed to clean up politics. In 1933 he ran as independent candidate for Victoria in a provincial election, on a platform that included an attack on the "political machines"; increased taxes on public utilities, promotion by merit only in the civil service, lower pay for MLA's, and opposition to the CCF as "Utopian."

The result of the election was a Liberal victory. Mr. Sinnott didn't succeed in his campaign, but he did get more votes than any of W. J. Bowser's Conservative candidates.

He made effective use of the radio at a time when radio campaigning was also unknown, and also attracted much attention by hiring an old coach and horses, driven by a liveried coachman.

The coach was labelled "The Old Party Hack." Behind it, by way of contrast, drove a sleek yellow car which Mr. Sinnott had just bought. It was labelled, of course, "Pat Sinnott."

CITIZENSHIP (NATIONALITY) is defined in terms of the country to which the person owes allegiance. The term "Canadian" should be used as descriptive of a person who was born in Canada or who has rights of Citizenship in Canada, unless it or she has subsequently become the citizen of another country. RACIAL ORIGIN is defined in terms of the people or race to which the person—traced through the father—belongs, whether English, Irish, Scottish, French, German, Russian, Ukrainian, etc. The terms "Canadian" or "American" should not be used for RACIAL ORIGIN, as they express CITIZENSHIP (NATIONALITY).
