

HALLMARK SOCIETY
INVENTORY OF HERITAGE BUILDINGS

Name of Recorder: Ella Date: Mar. 3, 1978

IDENTITY: Number, Street, Municipality, City: 649 Admirals Road, Esquimalt

Name of Building: _____

CONSTRUCTION: Wall Material: Stone _____ Brick _____ Frame X Other _____
Condition of Structure: Very Good X Fair _____ Poor _____ Altered _____
Much

HISTORY: Date of Construction: 1898 California Victorian RANCH STYLE
Description of Construction 2 1/2 storey frame structure with steep gable roof;
and Style: gabled dormers; casement & double hung windows; recessed verandah
Name of Original Owner
(individual or company): John Oliver

Original Use: Private residence

Name of Present Owner: Peter Cotton, architect 1969-1978

Present Use: Private residence willed to Connie Young

Brief Biography of Original Owner: He was a customs officer & Larry Paik (up for sale 1984)

Name of Contractors & Artisans, if known: Unknown

Name of Architect(s): Unknown

Brief Biography of Architect: _____

Brief History of the Building to the Present; (additions, alterations, destruction, etc.): No major alterations

listed to exterior of structure

PICTURE

Locate Building on Street Plan

Reference: Sources of Information: 1895-1917 city directories; building & plumbing records; assessment records; The White Rock & Surrey Sun - May 25/78

If additional space needed, attach sheet.

Continuation of description of construction & style:

on upper storey with wooden spindled railing & wooden detailing overhead; some shinglework in peak of gable; main storey verandah on 2 sides of structure with square wooden columns for support & wooden railing