

913 Burdett Avenue
Designated

Name: Cecil Roberts House

Constuction Date: 1904

Style: Tudor Revival (a variation of the Chalet Style)

Original Owner: Major Cecil Roberts

Original Use: Residence

Biography of Original Owner: Moved to Victoria in 1888, became chief draftsman with Prov. Surveyor-General, resigned in 1911 to open his own surveying company.

Roberts died at the age of 95 in 1961.

Architect: Samuel Maclure

Present Owner: Sisters of St. Ann

Present Use: Residence

Present Condition: Good with a pleasant garden

Brief History: Alternations made in 1920.

